UPDATE

AU Library presents

FRONTIERS IN DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP

GET STARTED WITH DIGITAL HUMANITIES POP-UP-LAB FOR STUDENTS

Wednesday 26 October, 10-16, AU Library, Nobelparken, Jens Chr. Skous Vej 5, Building 1461.

Useful tools in the field of Digital Humanities will be demonstrated and humanities students and scholars will showcase simple solutions for harvesting their field's low-hanging fruits.

Programme:

10-12: Data Archiving - self-archiving the web and social media

12-14: Data preparation - formatting, munging and cleaning data sets

14-16: Data Analysis and visualization.

Due to limited seats, please register with Lisbeth at lrk@au.dk or tel. 5056 0092.
You can sign up for parts of the event or for the whole day.

Organisers: AU Library. Nobelparken in collaboration with:

AARHUS UNIVERSITET | DAI – Digital Arts Initiative | DeiC | DIGHUMLAB Digital Humanities Lab Denmark